DESCRIPTION

Designed and constructed over a thirty-year period (1865-1895) by Frederick Law Olmsted and Calvert Vaux, who were the masterminds behind the designing of Central Park, Prospect Park has blossomed into a premiere destination for Brooklyn visitors and residents alike.

The park it is widely known for the intricate manmade watercourse (wetlands) and trees, the bulk of Brooklyn's remaining indigenous forest, as well as, the park highly functional green space. Within the 526 acres, there is a zoo, urban-area Audubon Center, ice rink, band shell, carousel, and dozens of athletic and recreational facilities.
