The image shows a mobile application interface for WeTransfer. At the top, there is a blue circular icon with a white plus sign. To its right, the text reads "Add your files" in a bold font, with a smaller link "Or select a folder" underneath. Below this section are three input fields: "Email to", "Your email", and "Message". At the bottom left, there is a blue circular icon with three white dots. To its right is a grey rounded rectangular button with the word "Transfer" in white text.
