Syllabus Comparison

Small group activity—Work in Groups of 2-4

- Everyone should take out or pull up online a syllabus from one of your spring 2023 classes.
 - Compare syllabi with other members of your group: Are they all the same? What differences do you notice?
 - Read one of the syllabi closely as a group. What questions do you have about it? Is there anything on it that you don't understand?
 - Prepare to share your observations and questions with the group as a whole.

Welcome

Welcome to City Tech and English 1101. It takes a lot of work and sacrifice to be a successful student on your best days, so facing additional challenges outside of the classroom can seriously compromise your efforts to perform your best. We are living through a very difficult time in our city, country, and world, and we are all trying to adapt. In our class, we will prioritize intellectual nourishment, community, and humanity. Any student who has difficulty affording groceries or accessing sufficient food to eat every day; or who is dealing with a COVID-related health situation; or who lacks a safe and stable place to live; or is facing other extreme problems in their life, is urged to reach out to me or the Counseling Services Center <counseling@citytech.cuny.edu>. Please know that there is a lot of support for you here at the college.

Course Description

A course in effective essay writing and basic research techniques including use of the library. Demanding readings assigned for classroom discussion and as a basis for essay writing. This course features reading and writing assignments that will help prepare you for college and beyond. Together we will work on communicating effectively, building an argument, adapting your writing for different needs and situations, interpreting and responding to a text, as well as incorporating and citing source materials. Sharing your own ideas and experiences by adding your voice to our discussions will enrich our class community.

Grading Breakdown

80%	Preparation + Participation
70%	Final Portfolio

Preparation + Participation

Students will demonstrate preparation by annotating assigned readings, completing activities, and writing posts, as well as, coming to class prepared to participate. Class participation can include: contributing to discussion, asking questions, responding to other students' questions, engaging in group work, and contributing to peer reviews. Most of these areas are graded on a scale of 0-3 [0 = not submitted to 3= excellent work]

Attendance

Although attendance is not graded on its own, students' presence is crucial to being successful in this course. Without regular attendance students are putting themselves at risk for falling behind. If you know regular attendance will be an issue, please speak with the professor right away. Arriving to class late is disruptive. Attendance is taken at the start of each class, and students who are not present at the beginning of class must inform the professor at the end of class or risk being marked absent for the day.

Things happen, and many students will have to be absent once or twice over the course of the semester—this is okay. However, please remember that an absence today is not an excuse for being unprepared tomorrow. If a student must miss class, they must be responsible about it—check in with classmates, Blackboard, and the professor, so that it is clear what has been missed and what needs to be done to be prepared for the next class. It is the student's responsibility to be ready to participate upon their return to class.

Final Portfolio

All students must submit a Final Portfolio in order to pass the course. This makes up most of the grade for this course because it is composed of work from Unit 1 (Education Narrative), Unit 2 (Reflective Annotated Bibliography), Unit 3 (Genre Text), and a Final Reflection. Each Unit is worth 20% and the Final Reflection is worth 10%. Final projects from Units 1 + 2 must be revised for the Final Portfolio. A detailed assignment sheet and specific directions will be posted on Blackboard after midsemester. All portfolios are due by Monday, May 23rd by 11:59pm. NO LATE PORTFOLIOS ACCEPTED.

Course Policies

Late Work Policy

All assignments are due BEFORE class starts on the date listed (unless otherwise directed). Even though this is an in-person class, ALL assignments will be submitted online through Blackboard. The professor will not accept physical copies of work. Late work is accepted, but there will be a small grade penalty. IT IS ALWAYS BETTER TO SUBMIT SOMETHING LATE THAN TO NOT SUBMIT IT AT ALL. If you are having difficulty completing a major assignment, please talk to me before it is due.

Tutoring

There is free tutoring available via the City Tech Writing Center for all students in ENG 1101. Students may go if they feel they need extra help with an essay; permission or referral from a professor is not needed. In some cases, students will be required to go if they are struggling with a particular issue that is not addressed in ENG 1101. To schedule an appointment, email: CityTechWritingCenter@gmail.com.

Office Hours

I am available to meet on Zoom during office hours on Tuesdays and at other times by appointment. Email to schedule an appointment. If you are struggling, have questions, or need extra help, office hours are your opportunity to talk with me!

Email Policy

Per college policy, students will only be allowed to communicate with the professor via their City Tech email address (the one that ends with @mail.citytech.cuny.edu) and Blackboard. Most emails receive a response within 48 hours—if you don't receive a response after two days, check the email address (and spelling), and email again. Many students find that the best way to keep track of their email is to download the Outlook app on their phone.

Recording Policy

Students are NOT permitted to record any part of the class or office hours without prior approval or instruction from the professor. This includes screenshots on Zoom. Some class sessions will be officially recorded by the professor and made accessible ONLY to students officially enrolled in the course. Individual student recordings—audio or visual—compromise the security and privacy of the rest of the class.

Advisors

Academic advisors are available to all students as support at City Tech. If you are in SEEK or ASAP, contact your advisor in the program. If you have declared your major, reach out to the chair of your department. If you are undeclared, contact Dr. Julian Williams, Director of Liberal Arts & Sciences, jwilliams@citytech.cuny.edu.

Accessibility Statement

City Tech is committed to supporting the educational goals of enrolled students with disabilities in the areas of enrollment, academic advisement, tutoring, assistive technologies, and testing accommodations. If you have or think you may have a disability, you may be eligible for reasonable accommodations or academic adjustments as provided under applicable federal, state and city laws. You may also request services for temporary conditions or medical issues under certain circumstances. If you have questions about your eligibility or would like to seek accommodation services or academic adjustments, you can leave a voicemail at 718-260-5143, send an email to: Accessibility@citytech.cuny.edu, or visit the Center's website at <http://www.citytech.cuny.edu/accessibility/> for more information.

Academic Integrity

Students and all others who work with information, ideas, texts, images, music, inventions, and other intellectual property owe their audience and sources accuracy and honesty in using, crediting, and citing sources. As a community of intellectual and professional workers, the College recognizes its responsibility for providing instruction in information literacy and academic integrity, offering models of good practice, and responding vigilantly and appropriately to infractions of academic integrity. Accordingly, academic dishonesty is prohibited in The City University of New York and at New York City College of Technology and is punishable by penalties, including failing grades, suspension, and expulsion. The complete text of the College policy on Academic Integrity may be found in the catalog.

City Tech Diversity and Inclusive Education Statement

This course welcomes students from all backgrounds, experiences and perspectives. In accordance with the City Tech and CUNY missions, this course intends to provide an atmosphere of inclusion, respect, and the mutual appreciation of differences so that together we can create an environment in which all students can flourish. It is the instructor's goal to provide materials and activities that are welcoming and accommodating of diversity in all of its forms, including race, gender identity and presentation, ethnicity, national origin, religion, cultural identity, socioeconomic background, sexuality and sexual orientation, ability, neurodivergence, age, and etc. Your instructor is committed to equity and actively seeks ways to challenge institutional racism, sexism, ableism and other forms of prejudice. Your input is encouraged and appreciated. If a dynamic that you observe or experience in the course concerns you, you may respectfully inform your instructor without fear of how your concerns will affect your grade. Let your instructor know how to improve the effectiveness of the course for you personally, or for other students or student groups. We acknowledge that NYCCT is located on the traditional homelands of the Canarsie and Lenape peoples.

Small Group Discussion

Academic Integrity

Question #1: What are some of the reasons why students might cheat or plagiarize on assignments and exams?

Question #2: Is academic integrity important for college students? Why?

Directions for small group discussion:

- 5-7 minutes to discuss questions
- Assign scribe to take notes while you all discuss
- Assign reporter to share answers to question #1 with full class
- Assign reporter to share answers to question #2 with full class
- We will come back as group to discuss-- be prepared!

Forms of Academic Dishonesty

- a. Cheating is the unauthorized use or attempted use of material, information, notes, study aids, devices or communications during an academic exercise.
- b. Plagiarism is the act of presenting another person's ideas, research or writings as your own.
 - c. Internet plagiarism includes submitting downloaded term papers or parts of term papers, paraphrasing or copying information from the internet without citing the source, and "cutting and pasting" from various sources without proper attribution.
- d. Obtaining unfair advantage is any activity that intentionally or unintentionally gives a student an unfair advantage in his/her academic work over another student.
- e. Falsification of records and official documents includes, but is not limited to, forging signatures of authorization and falsifying information on an official academic record.

Examples of Cheating

- Copying from another student during an examination or allowing another to copy your work.
- Unauthorized collaboration on a take home assignment or examination.
- Using notes during a closed book examination.
- Taking an examination for another student, or asking or allowing another student to take an examination for you.
- Changing a graded exam and returning it for more credit.
- Submitting substantial portions of the same paper to more than one course without consulting with each instructor.
- Preparing answers or writing notes in a blue book (exam booklet) before an examination.
- Allowing others to research and write assigned papers or do assigned projects, including using commercial term paper services.
- Giving assistance to acts of academic misconduct/ dishonesty.
- Fabricating data (in whole or in part).
- Falsifying data (in whole or in part).
- Submitting someone else's work as your own.
- Unauthorized use during an examination of any electronic devices such as cell phones, computers or other technologies to retrieve or send information.

Examples of Plagiarism and Internet Plagiarism

- Copying another person's actual words without the use of quotation marks and footnotes attributing the words to their source.
- Presenting another person's ideas or theories in your own words without acknowledging the source.
- Failing to acknowledge collaborators on homework and laboratory assignments.
- Submitting downloaded term papers or parts of term papers, paraphrasing or copying information from the internet without citing the source, or "cutting & pasting" from various sources without proper attribution.

Examples of Obtaining Unfair Advantage

- Stealing, reproducing, circulating or otherwise gaining advance access to examination materials.
- Depriving other students of access to library materials by stealing, destroying, defacing, or concealing them.
- Retaining, using or circulating examination materials which clearly indicate that they should be returned at the end of the exam.
- Intentionally obstructing or interfering with another student's work.

City Tech's Commitment to Academic Integrity

Students and all others who work with information, ideas, texts, images, music, inventions, and other intellectual property owe their audience and sources accuracy and honesty in using, crediting, and citing sources. As a community of intellectual and professional workers, the College recognizes its responsibility for providing instruction in information literacy and academic integrity, offering models of good practice, and responding vigilantly and appropriately to infractions of academic integrity. Before Session 3...

- Complete Reflection on OpenLab by replying to Reflection #2 Post.
 - Remember, you must have an account and be logged in to OpenLab to reply to a post.
 - How to Respond to a Reflection
 1. Read the Reflection post.
 2. Click on Comment.
 3. Write your comment in the box.
 4. Click Post.

Reflection #2

Review the syllabus for one of the courses you are taking in the spring semester. In your reflection, be sure to identify the course and then describe the key points you found in the syllabus. What does this information tell you about what you should expect in this particular course? Are there assignments that you are concerned about? Is there anything you have questions about?

Read and comment on another student's post. Are you taking any of these courses in the Spring? What other courses are you taking? Is anyone else in the same classes you are?
